

Global Interactions:

- State five different types of 'global interactions'
 - Name one index used to measure globalisation, and state the names of 3 specific things it measures
 - What are hubs and nodes?
 - Define outsourcing
 - Describe one example of cultural imperialism destroying a indigenous peoples' culture (4)
 - State the name of the two different units that can be used in the measurement of 'Food Miles'
 - State the names of two specific airplanes which have drastically shortened the time-space convergence
 - Besides airplanes, describe one way that friction caused a reduction in the time space convergence even further
 - Examine the relative changes in the speed and capacity of two types of transport' We looked at flight and...?
 - State two different statistics from our case study on South Korean internet
 - Define civil society
 - Name the company behind TV white spaces in Kenya that we learned about
 - What does 'repatriation of profits' mean from the following syllabus point:
Examine the importance of loans, debt repayment, development aid, remittances, foreign direct investment and repatriation of profits
 - Which global financial institutions have we studied in class?
-
- State one cause and one effect of the Indian migrant flow, with a statistic, place specific reference, etc. in each.
 - Define agro-industrialization
 - Describe three characteristics of agro-industrialization and its farming styles which are unique to this type of farming
 - What are GMOs?
 - State two advantages and two disadvantages to GMOs
 - Name an agro-industrially-linked TNC
 - Explain why air-freight is one of the worst types of transportation with regards to the environmental consequences (4)
 - Examine the role of one international civil society organization in fostering improved environmental management - Which one did we look at?
 - Define globalization
 - State 4 ways cities are becoming more uniform/homogenized (4)
 - State the names of three agents of cultural diffusion (3)
 - What is the core? the periphery?
 - Syllabus point: Describe one major pollution event affecting more than one country and examine the consequences of and responses to this event. What was the pollution event and which countries were involved?

- What is Trafigura and what did they do?
- Name two qualifications necessary to meet to become an 'ocean friendly restaurant'
- Name two qualifications necessary to meet to become an 'ocean friendly garden'
- State two environmental consequence of commercial activity of urban landscapes
- What is the difference between cultural diffusion and cultural dilution
- State three agents of cultural diffusion
- Syllabus point: Select two different branded commodities and examine the spatial and temporal pattern of adoption on a global scale. Which two did we do, and point out two differences in their spatial and temporal pattern of adoption (one of each)

- What does diaspora mean?
- Describe two traits of jewish culture that America has preserved (6 points)
- Syllabus point: Examine the impact of cultural diffusion on one indigenous and remote society through the influence of international interactions. What was our case study, and describe 3 ways how these peoples' culture was influenced (6 points)
- Explain how international interaction homogenize our cultures (5 points)
- What is the difference between the EU and the Schengen Area
- What is the difference between sanctions and embargos?
- Potential exam question: Discuss the effectiveness of diminishing political borders with reference to one multi-governmental institution
- Discuss the view that TNCs are more powerful than nation states
- Name 3 TNCs that are more wealthy and 3 named countries (6 items in total)
- In which ways did Bolivia rise up and attempt to take control of its resources
- State two reasons why protests of G20, G8, and other global institutions occur so frequently
- State three reasons why adoption of globalized practices varies globally
- What are three pros to local production of goods and services as opposed to global production
- What are three cons to local production of goods and services as opposed to global production